

Storycard Theater® Turns Reading into Storytelling!

Leaf Moon Arts' kamishibai storycards are ideal for classrooms and students learning English. Our classic stories promote positive themes such as love, kindness, and honesty. Printed on large, sturdy cards (13" x 9-5/8"), the decks feature colorful artwork on the front and clear, kid-tested text on the back. "A delightful way to introduce multicultural stories to audiences of all ages."

Momotaro—the Peach Boy (ISBN: 978-0-9748161-0-4)

Retold by Hazuki Kataoka & David Battino; Illustrated by Mario Uribe
Momotaro is one of the most famous Japanese folktales, teaching children the virtues of courage, teamwork, and generosity in an exciting setting. A boy mysteriously born from a gigantic peach grows up to be a courageous yet kind-hearted young man. With the aid of three downtrodden animals, he stands up for the people of his village, who have been oppressed by a gang of greedy ogres.

12 cards/24 pages. Ages 4 and up. $24.95 Winner, 2004 Dr. Toy Award

Jack & the Beanstalk (ISBN: 978-0-9748161-1-1)

Retold by Hazuki Kataoka & David Battino; Illustrated by Kazumi Verkler
Jack & the Beanstalk reflects humanity's ancient fascination with touching the sky. In most versions, though, Jack is portrayed as a sneaky thief. The Leaf Moon Arts retelling follows one of the lesser-known storylines, presenting Jack as a compassionate figure who rescues the harp and hen from the cruel giant.

12 cards/24 pages. Ages 4 and up. $24.95 Winner, 2004 Dr. Toy Award

The Moon Princess (Kaguya-Hime) (ISBN: 978-0-9748161-2-8)

Retold by Hazuki Kataoka & David Battino; Illustrated by Kazumi Verkler
The Moon Princess is based on the oldest written tale in Japan. A baby girl magically born from a stalk of bamboo grows up to show unprecedented confidence and grace before floating back to her home on the moon.

Winner, 2008 Parents' Choice Approved Award

Bilingual English/Japanese. 12 cards/24 pages. Ages 6 and up. $24.95

The Cat with No Name (ISBN: 978-0-9748161-3-5)

Retold and Illustrated by Nina Khashchina

A classic Russian folktale. An adoring old couple concocts increasingly silly names for its kitten before stumbling on the perfect one. Nina Khashchina's playful watercolor paintings delight audiences young and old, and the interactive text keeps kids guessing. Simple, short sentences are ideal for younger audiences.

Winner, 2008 Parents' Choice Approved Award
